Thus, international core courses completed for the certificate need not necessarily increase the total hours required for graduation.

Students must present evidence of minimum proficiency in a foreign language. This requirement may be satisfied in either of two ways:

- Completing formal foreign-language study through the level of LANG 1020 or its equivalent.
- Submitting evidence of foreign-language proficiency through the level of LANG 1020. For example, students may document proficiency with results from a foreign-language course above the level of LANG 1020 or with the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) subject examinations. These examinations are administered by the College Board.
